Leukemia Claims the Life Of Brilliant Queen's Graduate

Jan 3 1957

WILLIAM J. LOSEE, of Ottawa, a 28-year-old Queen's University graduate, died Saturday in Kingston General Hospital, 10 days after learning that he had captured first prize in a student essay competition sponsored by the Canadian Mining Journal, a special prize for the best written paper in any category and still another award for producing the best paper in his college. The awards total $125 in cash.

Losee, a veteran of the Second World War who served with the Fleet Air Arm of the Royal Navy, died of leukemia, a blood condition akin to cancer. He was not aware of the fatal affliction until a few days before his death.

The student-engineer interrupted his course at Queen's early in the war and was aboard a British aircraft carrier anchored off Tokyo Bay when the first atom bomb was dropped on Hiroshima.

He returned to Queen's following his discharge from the navy.

Suffering the effects of the dread disease, Losee resumed his studies on his return and graduated with a BSc in mining this spring.

Although he made his home in Ottawa, Losee spent many summers at the summer home of his father, W. H. Losee, at Collins Bay. Mr. Losee is also a graduate of Queen's University.

Besides his parents he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Harvey Marshall (Josephine) of Ottawa, two babies at her skirts who was dressed in a brightly flowered European dress equipped with facilitate children.

and an aunt, Mrs. F. R. Sargent, 227 Victoria street.

Among those attending funeral services being held in Ottawa tonight are Professor A. V. Corlett, professor of mining at Queen's University and D. S. Ellis, dean of the faculty of science.

Rev. Robert MacLaughlin of Kingston and Queen's University padre, Rev. A. M. Lavery will officiate. Rev. Dr. George Brown, former minister of Chalmers United Church will conduct interment service at Cataraqui Cemetery tomorrow.

Taft said. "Congress and the people must know what we intend to do about Korea and what our military commitments are to be abroad."

Taft foresaw congress' almost complete absorption with the issues of rearming against the threat of Soviet aggression—such questions as military appropriations, new taxes, economic controls and changes in the draft law.

UN Assembly Again Studies Korean Crisis

For Food, Help

TOKYO — (AP) — A group of South Korean lighthouse keepers sent a floral tribute to the Canadian destroyer Cayuga for coming to their aid while they were ill and without food.

A letter addressed to Capt. Jeffry V. Brock of Winnipeg, commander of the Canadian destroyer force in the Pacific, said:

"You have travelled many thousands of miles across the Pacific Ocean to help us in Korea.

"I am a small man in Korea, but your men brought me food and medicine. This shows you have a love for all men and I thank you very much."

The Cayuga has been in Korean waters since July 26. It has been engaged in shore bombardment missions, escort duty and blockade activities. The destroyer also protected a fishing area near Inchon.

The Cayuga is one of three destroyers serving with the UN fleet in Korean waters. The others are the Sioux and Athabaskan.

World Rule Key to Peace, Nehru Says

GENEVA, Switzerland — (AP) — India's Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru said here today that final world peace can be achieved only through world government.

Delegates to the People's World Convention now meeting here went to Geneva Airport to greet the Indian prime minister who stopped briefly on his way to London for the commonwealth prime ministers' conference opening Thursday.

"If we work hard enough we can achieve world government," he said.

Howe Sub 157 Death of Joseph Loser
(1920)

On Saturday afternoon (Nov 1920), the many friends of Joseph Loser, Collins' Bay, were shocked when they heard that he had died very suddenly at the home of his daughter, Mrs H. D. Wightman, Princess St., Kingston. On Thursday Mr Loser was not feeling very well & upon the advice of his doctor he came to the city on Saturday, with his son-in-law. He had only been in the house about 10 minutes when he passed away. Heart failure is the cause of his passing.

The late Mr. Loser was one of the oldest residents of the Village of Collins' Bay. For many years he was postmaster & storekeeper. A few years ago he retired from same & sold out his business & bought a home in the village.

During the years he had been a resident of the village, he was an active member of the Methodist Church & was superintendent of the Sunday School for over 35 years. Mr. Loser was born at Newburgh, on May 29th 1841. He later moved to Collins' Bay with his mother and step-father. They first lived on the old Grass property.

Mr. Loser held the record of being the postmaster at the Village of Collins' Bay for forty years. During that time he was always on the job, & anxious to oblige the general public.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, Dr. Joseph, of New York, P.S.C., and William, and one daughter, Mrs H.D. Wightman. His son William, is at the present time in England, on a business trip. On Sunday his son Joseph arrived to be present at the funeral, which took place on Monday morning at 10 o'clock, from his late residence.

Mr. E. R. Kelly, Pastor of the Collins' Bay circuit, and Rev. W. T. G. Brown were in charge of the funeral service.

425 Simcoe Street North,
Oshawa, Ontario,
October 6th, 1938.

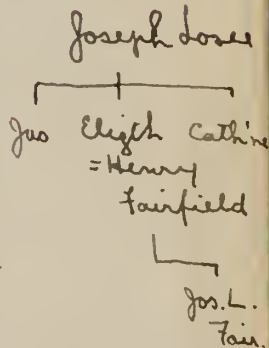

Dear Doctor Burleigh:

I wonder if you are still emulating the "flying Dutchman" along the front line as suggested in your former letter? By the way, you have never reported on the trip to Albany, N.Y.

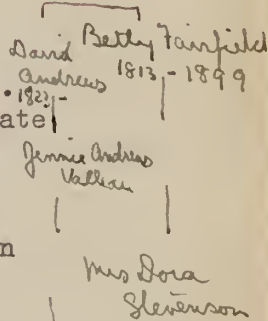

I have reached the point on my family "Losee" where some comment might help clarify some conclusions or perhaps determinations. In the church records, page 76 Vol. I O.H.S., it shows Joseph Losee married to Elinor Ockerman, October 27th, 1807, of Frederickburg, Ontario. → So what?

My search has established the probability of Elizabeth Losee who married Henry Fairfield, being the daughter of Joseph Losee, which is further confirmed by her youngest son being named Joseph Losee Fairfield. He was her bondsman along with Benjamin Fairfield at Kingston, Midland District February 16th, 1833.

It is a further probability in the same way that James Losee bonded with Hannah Grass January 12th, 1832 and Philip Hartman with Catharine Losee January 13th, 1840 were children of Joseph Losee by his being bondsman.

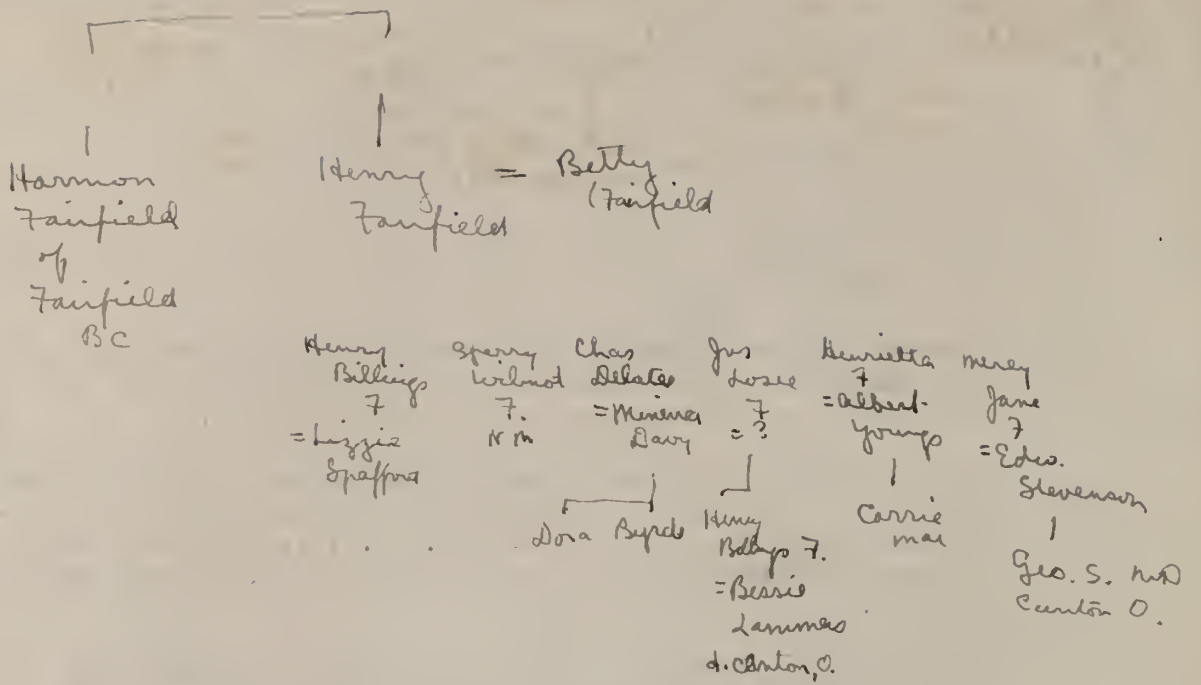

According to an obituary furnished by Mrs. Dora E. Stevenson of San Diego, California, her grandmother Betty Fairfield died at Gorham, N.Y., March 21st, 1899 and indicating her birth as in 1813. Mrs. Stevenson's recollections as also those of her cousins, indicate David Andrews as half brother to Betty Fairfield. My grandmother Jenny Andrews (Valleau) described her father's mother's mother as Grandma Losee and as the mother of Betty Fairfield as well. David Andrews was born August 26th, 1823 and Mary Andrews his sister born October 20th, 1820, Jane Andrews, date unknown.

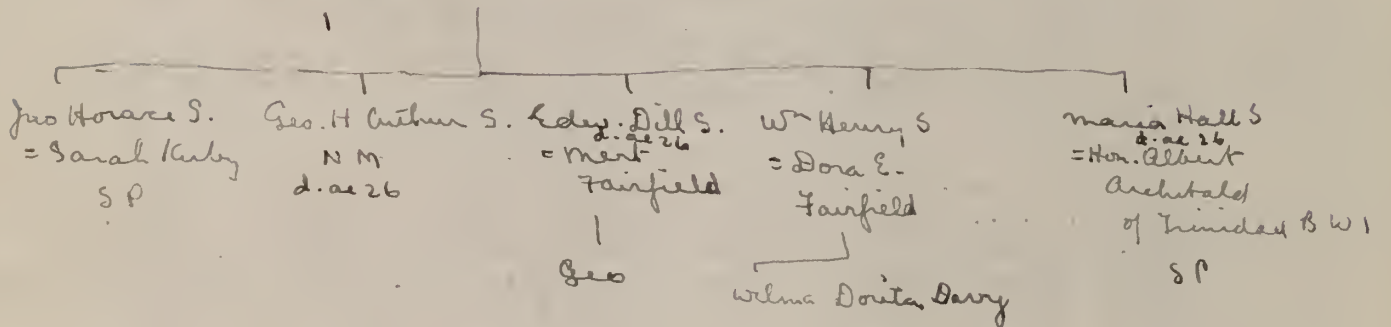

In order to establish anything tangible, it would look as if the "will" of Joseph Losee (yeoman of Township of Ernestown in 1833) would be a scoop.

Question: 1. Where would you suggest trying for this -- at Napanee or Kingston or both?

Question: 2. Have you any genealogical data on the Elinor Ockerman family into which "one" Joseph Married? This might establish his issue.

Mrs. Stevenson = Phoebe Hall
 of Bath

If the half sister idea of Betty Fairfield and David Andrews is correct and they had the same mother, Mrs. Losee must have buried Joseph Losee and married David Andrews Sr. There may have been two Joseph Losee's at Ernestown, which is something. Tradition says she married a Dulmage as well.

Question: 3. Do you know of any other source outside of O.H.S. Vol. I, which might record Joseph Losee's death?

Question: 4. Do you know where the Langhorn record mentioned by Canon Arthur Jarvis D.D. in Vol. I O.H.S. is located? This probably covers the Old Cemetery at Napanee, just north-west of the C.N. stone bridge.

Mrs. Dora E. Stevenson's remarks include describing Fairfield landmarks in Victoria, B.C., names after Harmon Fairfield from near Kingston, who was first cousin of Henry Fairfield, husband of Betty Fairfield. She mentioned a Jane and Maria Fairfield of Bath or Collins Bay.

In regard to the issue, she amplifies this as follows:

Henry Billings Fairfield	m. Lizzie Spafford
Sperry Wilmot Fairfield	unmarried
Chas. Delates Fairfield	m. Minerva Davy - issue Dora and Byrde
Joseph Losee Fairfield	M. ? issue - Henry Billings, d. in Canton Ohio. M. Bessie Lammers.
Henrietta Fairfield	m. Albert Youngs - issue - Carrie Mae
Merey Jan Fairfield	m. Edward Stevenson - issue - George Stevenson M.D. Pen Yan, N.Y.

Note that Henry Billings Fairfield Jr. died in Canton, Ohio, buried in Cleveland, Ohio - his mother a great friend of the Andrew Carnegie family.

Mrs. Dora Stevenson was born in Stratford, Ontario.

Billings Fairfield married a widow and adopted a small girl called Georgie - who married Chas. Bignall a banker in Winnipeg. She was wealthy and philanthropic.

John Stevenson has a store in Bath in partnership with John Lasher, who married Peter Davy's daughter. John was born there.

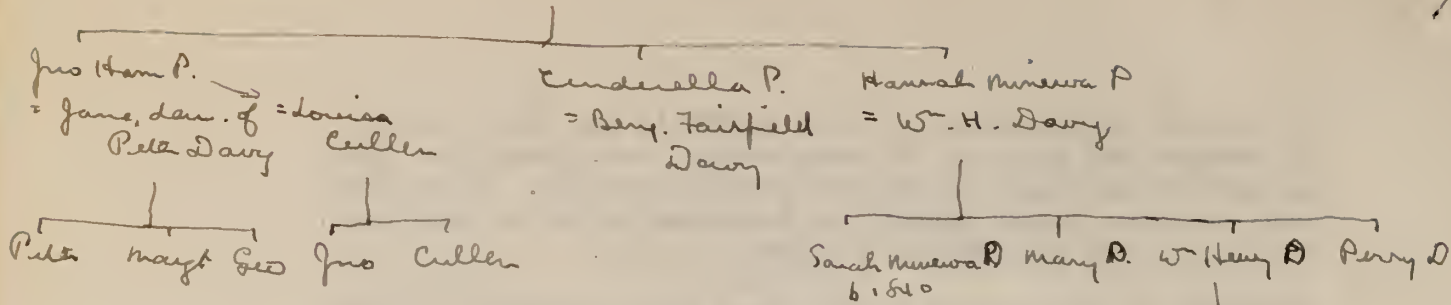

The children of John and Phebe Hall were:

John Horace Stevenson	- married Sarah Kirby - no issue
George H. Arthur Stevenson	- unmarried
Edward Dill Stevenson	- married Mert Fairfield - issue - George
Wm. Henry Stevenson	- married Dora E. Fairfield - issue - Wilma Dorita Davy
Maria Hall Stevenson	- married Hon. Albert Archibald of Trinidad, E.I.- no issue.

Of these George, Edward and Maria all died at the age of 26 years. George Edward married Margaret - no issue.

Robt Perry Emma Waggoner

Hon. Peter Perry = Mary Ham

Mrs Stevenson

Hon. Peter Perry married Mary Ham----- issue - 1. John Ham Perry, Whitby, Ontario, was superintendent of Welland Canal. He married Jane, daughter of Peter Davy - had three children, Peter, Margaret, George - second wife Lousia Cullen, now living in Whitby: issue - John, bank manager, Cullen, killed in war.

2. Cinderella Perry married Benjamin Fairfield Davy.
3. Hannah Minerva Perry b. 1819 d. 1840 married Wm. H. Davy (grandfather of Mrs. Stevenson) issue: Sarah Minerva b. 1840) (C.D. Fairfield) Mary Perry, Wm. Henry, Perry Davy.

"At one time Wm. H. Davy and Peter Davy practically owned Bath and land around it and "had it not been for the stubborn perversity of Uncle Peter who refused to allow The G.T.R.R. to run through his land Bath would have been a city. "My grandfather (Wm. H. Davy) had a general store and sold everything from coffee to peanuts, postoffice, telegraph, customs office, drug store, farm implements, saw mill, grist mill, grain elevator. At one time built and owned seventeen steamboats and vessels - "I well remember mother and Aunt Dearie (Mary Perry) and Uncle Will, taking turns in christening the side wheel steamers - the W.H. Davy, B.F. Davy, Bay Queen, Red Rover, Gilmour and Thomas Downey, etc.

"Ten years before grandfather died his hard earned fortune began to slip away; a friend to those in distress along the shore from Kingston to Belleville. "I sold the last Davy farm before coming here to spend the evening of our lives. The old cut stone Davy house still stands.

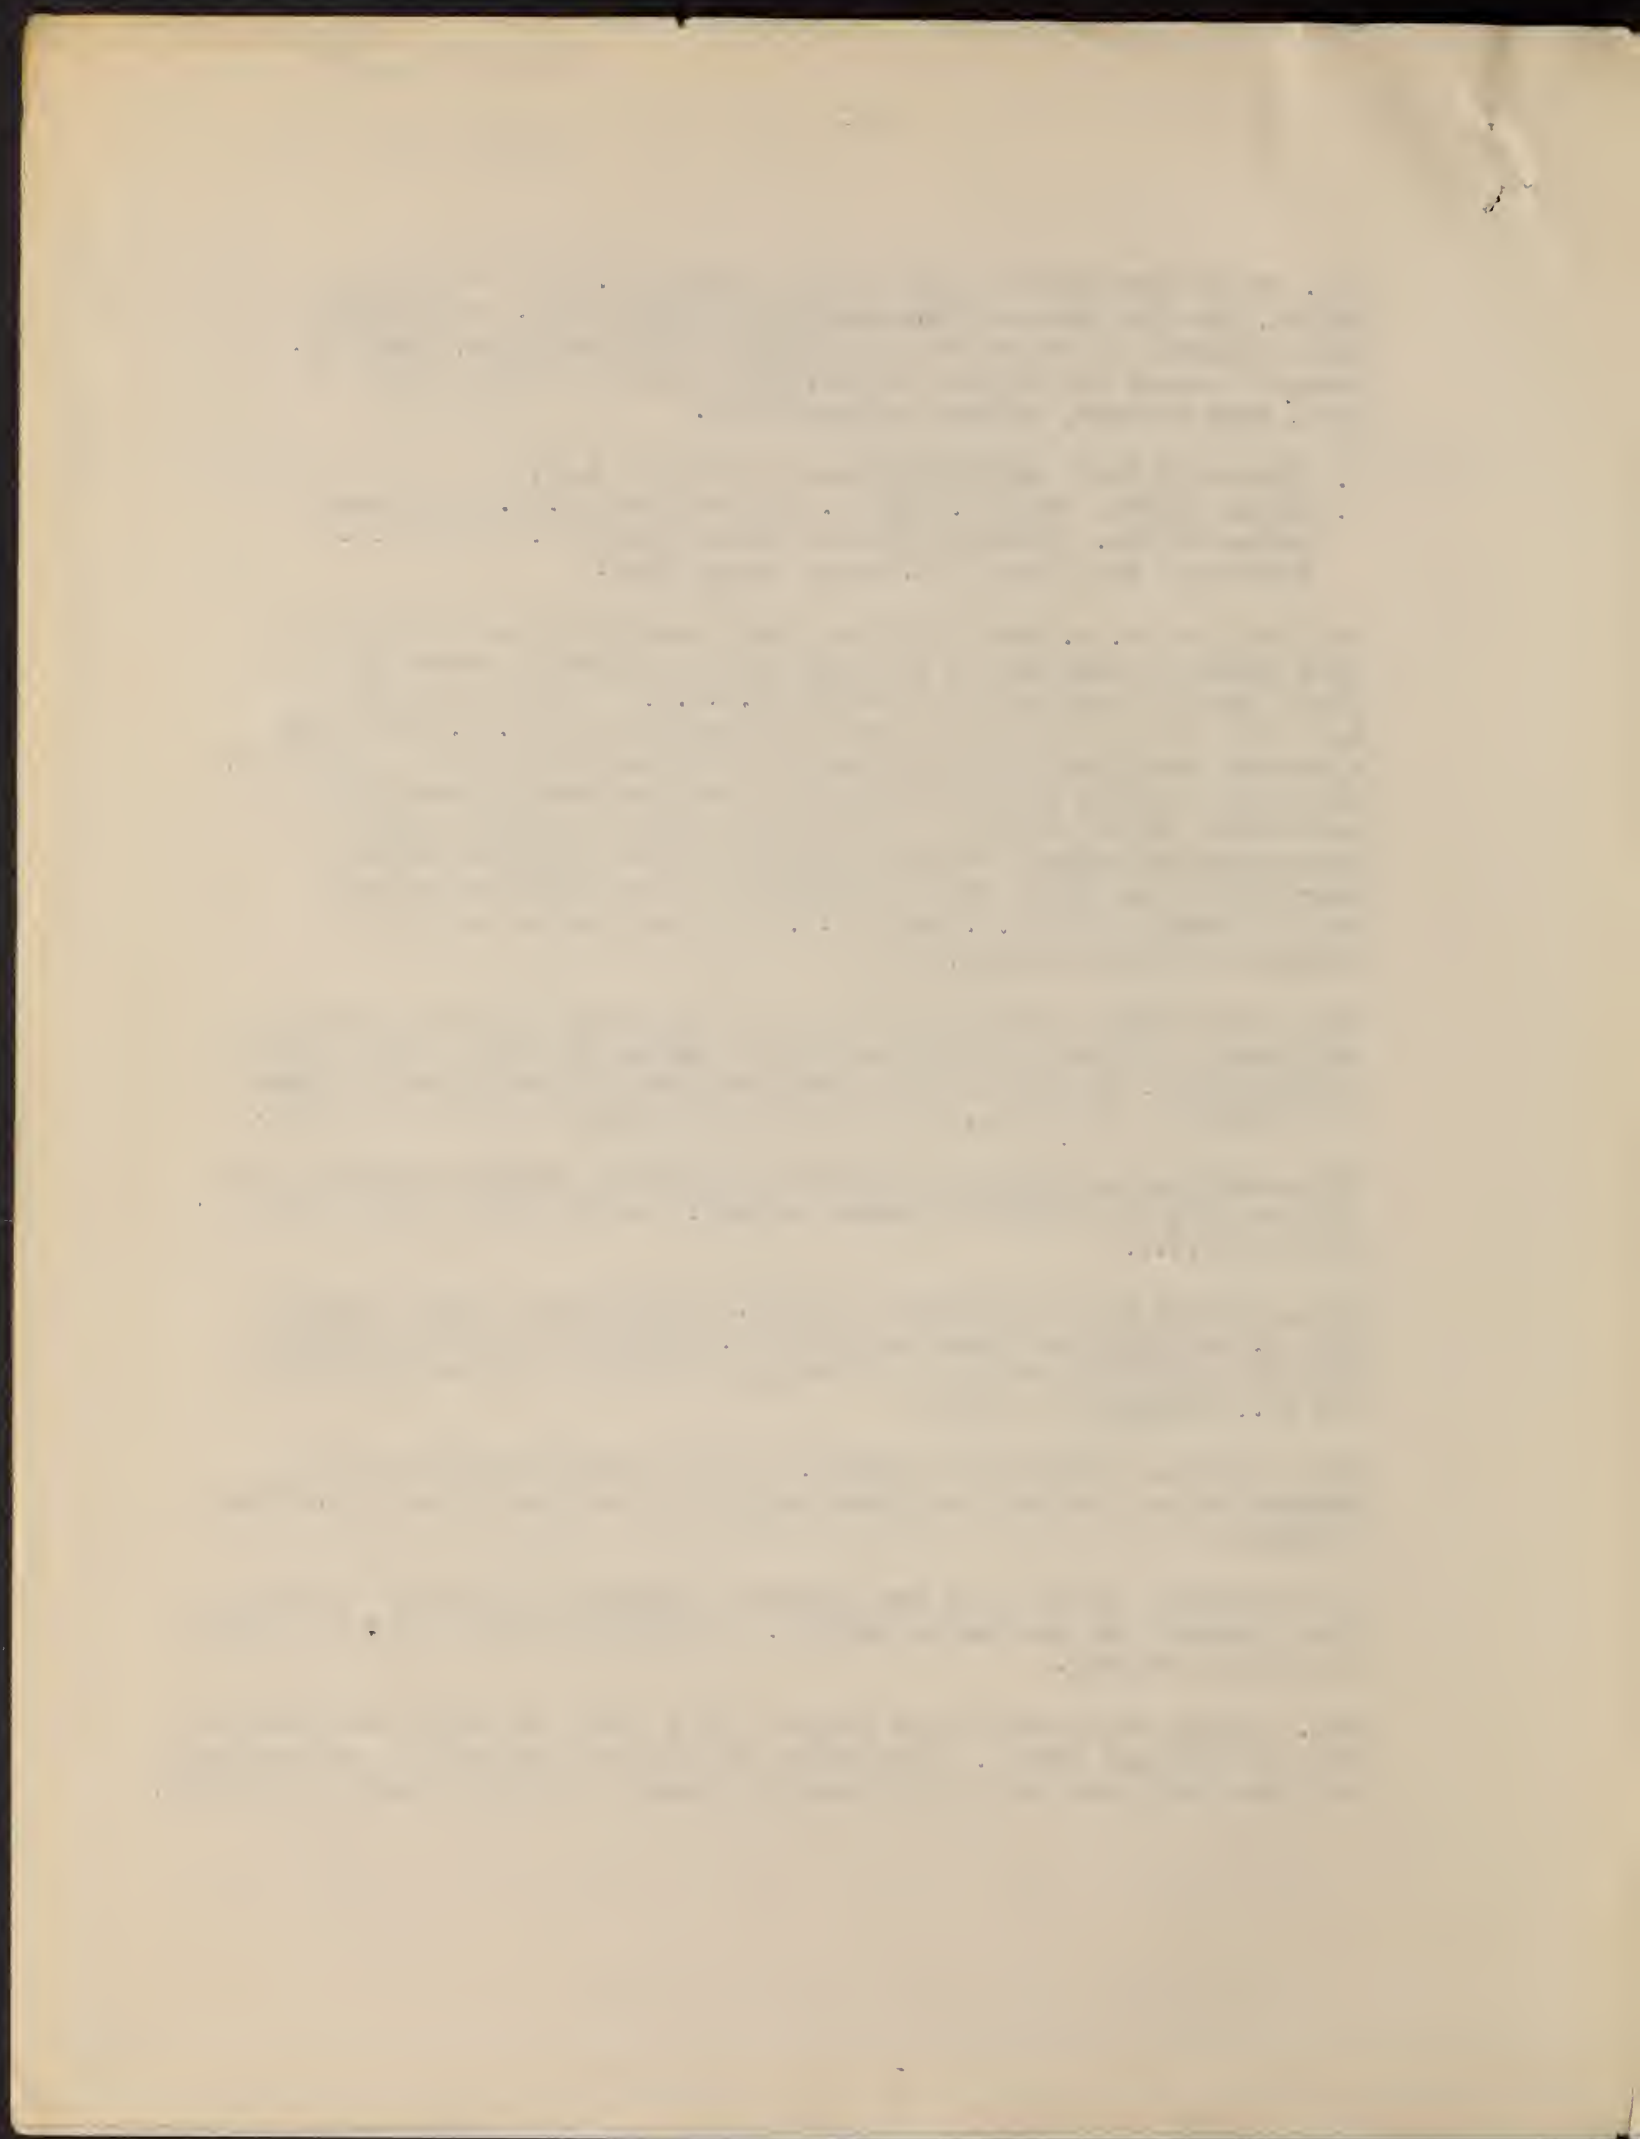

"My great-great-grandfather Robert Perry married Jemimia Washburn, who died in 1830, he in 1837 - buried in Bath. -- The Perry's and Davy's were all U.E.L.

"Mrs. Gutzell saw a cook-book which Dr. Burleigh had, 1,000 pages by Dora E. Fairfield and wants one like it. (remember the Losee remark!) This is out-of-date as when written eggs were 10¢ doz. and butter 12¢ per lb., published in 1888."

Thus ends Mrs. Stevenson's remarks. She is seventy-six years old I imagine and is not very well just now, being confined to her bed, (slight leakage).

I can amplify the Davy and Ham genealogy touched by her with the data from "Pioneers On the Bay of Quinte". I intend to call on Mrs. H.J. Perry of Whitby, Ontario.

Mrs. Livesay still waits your letter - be a sport and write and thank her for the Reynolds data -. I told her you lost your letters in house-cleaning activities and she is all ready to forgive, but still wants the Doctor!

She gave me a clipping from the Boston Transcript (daily) with Lazier data, which fits the Canadian family. Their column offers a channel for enquiries which you have in mind and it is backed up by a considerable reference availability.

My letters to various people upon Losee and Lazier have not flowed in as I would like - for instance a Mrs. Herchemer Grasse of Buffalo, aged 86 yrs. is one that I am eager to hear from. One cannot have everything.

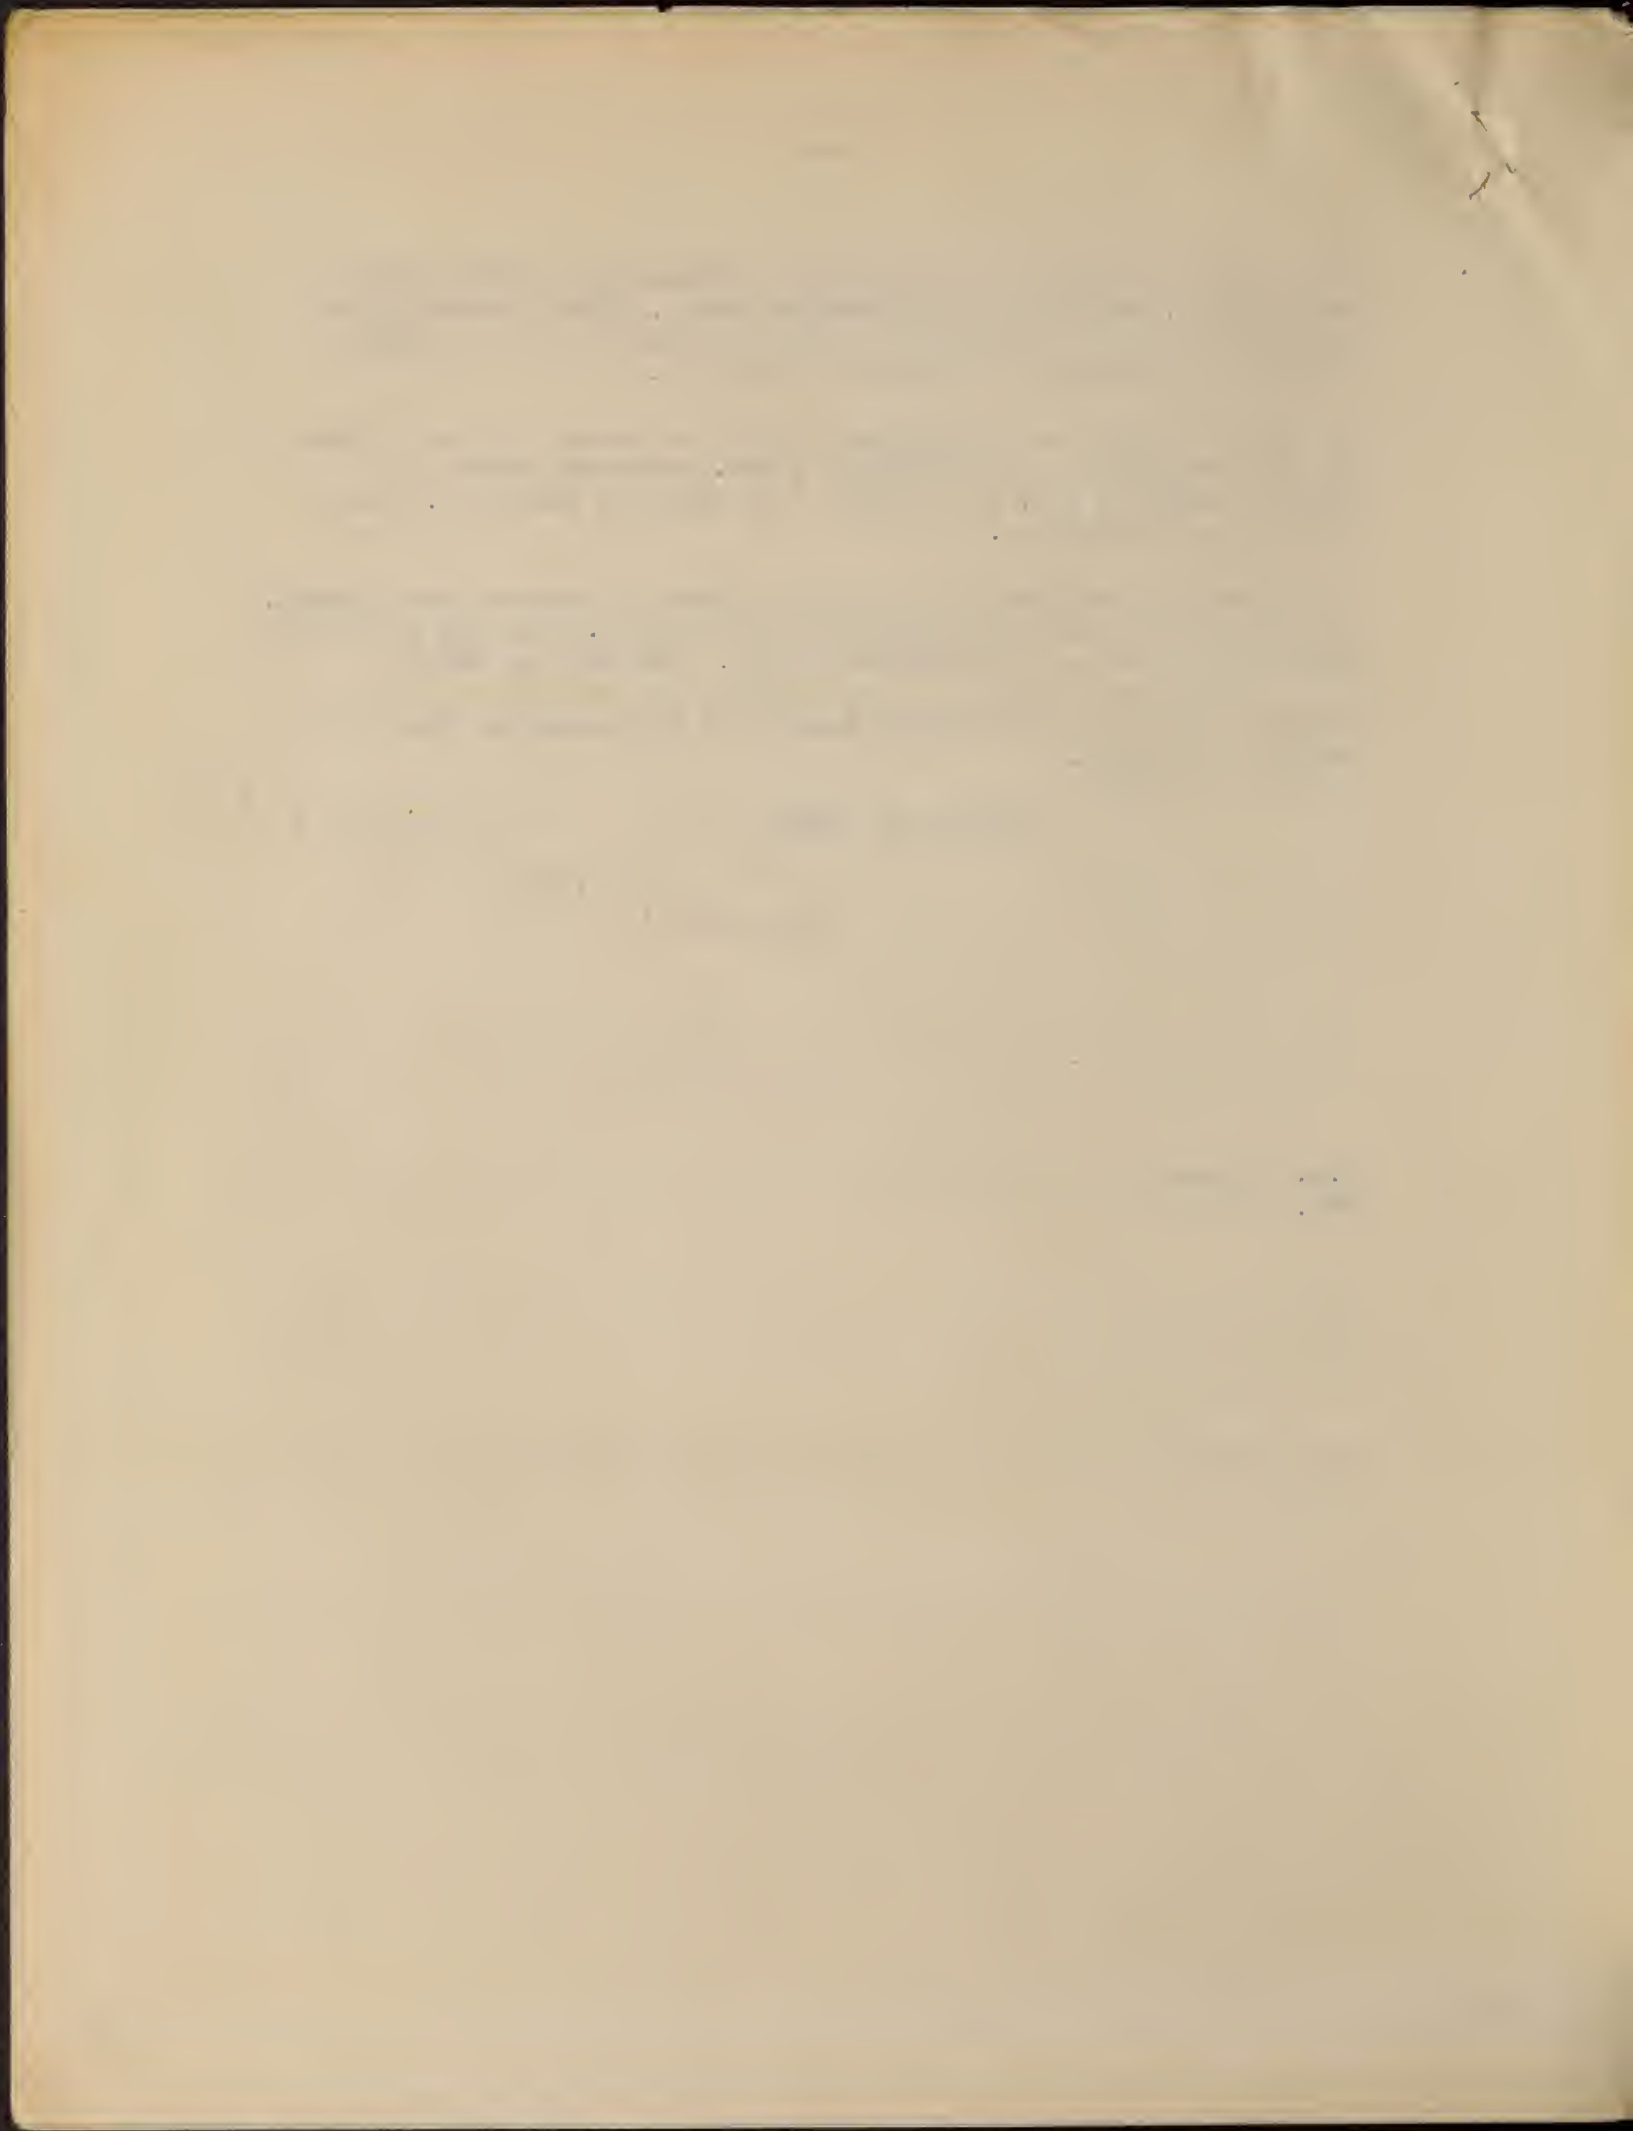

I understand Henry Davy of Bath made a start on data on Bath people, but have been unable to get a line on his notes. His son in Toronto has what was done. His daughter is Mrs. Alex Bell of Oshawa.

I have a line on a "Lunenberg" book which lists many of the old Palatine settlers.

Yours very truly,

D.A. Vallean

Eight good sized onions chopped fine, half that quantity of bread crumbs, butter the size of an egg, pepper and salt. Mix thoroughly with anchovy paste until quite red. Stuff fish with this compound and pour the rest over it, previously sprinkling it with a little red pepper. Tomatoes can be used instead of anchovies. If using them, take pork instead of butter, and chop fine.

Mill Haven.— A post village in the Township of Ernesttown, and county of Addington, situated on the Bay of Quinte, and one mile and a half from Ernesttown Station on the Grand Trunk Railway, 14 miles from Espanoe (the county town), and 16 miles from Kingston. Mill creek here furnishes excellent water power, and at present only supplies the power for a flouring mill (with two run of stones), and a saw mill. The locality was first settled about 1780; and the village laid out, in 1840, by Isaac Traser. The post office was established in 1845, Jeremiah Amey being the official. The present post master is George B. Forward. There is a school, with an average attendance of thirty pupils, under the charge of Solomon Hillier. Mails daily. Population 150

Next above was David Williams (generally called Sgt. Williams), a blacksmith, long since dead. His children are widely scattered. Joseph Loebe now occupies the farm and keeps a livery.

Mrs. Fred Coney.

Benjamin Wemp and wife rented the Inn from Old Mrs. Fitch 1859 or 60 (Fred Wemp born in the Inn). They went there, she with her belongings in a bandanna handkerchief and ~~shes~~ in a carpet bag. The Inn remained in Wemp family until 1938. Date of purchase from Mrs. Fitch must be obtained from deeds or Registry Office.

Date of erection of Inn is unknown by Mrs. Ames, although she says her mother said that it was 100 years old when Mrs. Ames was young. Certainly built between 1784 and 1833; likely about 1815-20. Could be older. In any event, Mrs. Ames says it was built before Lossee came there.

The Inn was as today with a string of attached buildings to the east, in this order: shed, stables, barn and another shed.

Division Court was once held in the Ballroom. This was before Mrs. Ames's time. Actually it terminated when the Town Hall was built in Bath in 1861. Mrs. Ames said that Mrs. Ben. Wamp used to serve the Judge's meals in the Parlor (East End). Mrs. Ames used to use the Witness Box as a play house.

Many dances, organized by Mr. Wamp, used to be held in the Ball Room. When Mrs. Ames's sister was married, they served 150 meals in the Ball Room. 25 girls, including Mrs. Ames, served the meals ("waited on the tables"). Billy Van Cleak (owner of the bar) played the violin for the dances.

Singing School was also held at times in Ball Room by a man named Rockwell.

There was no wharf, although Ben. Wamp used to bring barrels of whiskey from Kingston by wagon and take part to the Island hotels by a boat (large) rowed by two men.

The Wamp's oldest child born in Billings Ames (Mr. Ames's house)

The next child, Fred., was born in the Inn in 1850.

Bill Howland, who was a no-good, could not have stayed at the Inn for very long, as Wamps were there by 1860. He, of course, was son of Mrs. Fitch by first wife ~~husband~~

Ben Wamp died aged 51 years + 11 days of Ca. of neck (1888). (born 1837) (a 28 when he took over the hotel)

The Stage was at one time run by the Mincks, but not in Mrs. Amey's time. Silas Burley & some other man ran it alternate weeks. This was a regular stage, covered, with seats facing each other.

When the "Oliver Nowat" was launched in 1872 in the field east of Mill Creek outlet, on Bay Side, Mrs. Amey was present. Remembers vast crowd. Her two older brothers were on & got off on high shore just east of the Inn. Her father with two helpers served at the bar. Her mother with two assistant ~~work~~ served 200 meals in the Ball Room. Wamp closed the bar after the launching. Sam Clark's kept open and a fight developed - fists, bottles and chairs were used as weapons

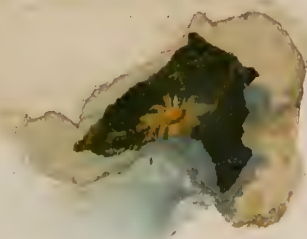

The Inn was closed after Prohibition (Scott Act. - 1870?) & not used again as stopping place until Mrs Macpherson. Degenerated into farmhouse.

Dear Mr. Burleigh, -
Thank you
so much for your letter
with its interesting facts
I am sending you a family

ago by a cousin, D'Arcy Davidson (now deceased). It contains most pertinent information I have I have been in touch with Jones in Portland in Michigan Oregon & Vancouver B.C. who were completely unknown to us before I started this. As you can see in page 4 a descendant of Laurence Leow married a Mayhe who is mentioned in Dr. Pearson's book along with Leow as coming to Ontario at the same time which would link us up with William Leese, wouldn't it? However we couldn't have been descended from him as he was of the Pennsylvanian as Laurence Lose so they could have been cousins wouldn't they? Guyway as Laurence's wife was Kluteh (I think) they could have come from Ballant. I remember hearing my father speak of someone coming from Pennsylvania. I wish I had paid more attention, then.

Thank you again for your letter and I hope this will lead to more information for me.

I do appreciate your kindness
Yours sincerely

THE LOSIE FAMILY
1775 - 1963

COMPILED BY
D'ARCY M. DAVIDSON
34 CENTRE STREET
SCARBOROUGH
ONTARIO

P R E F A C E

For the greater part of this genealogy I am indebted to Mrs. Thomas Allen (nee Etta Catherine Losie, pages 5 and 16) who, before 1900, started listing the known members of the Losie family, most of whom she would know personally from her childhood up to 1944. I am also very grateful to her son, Grant Allen, page 11, who loaned me his mother's book to enable me to list the earlier members of the family.

The Robinson and Bull families are included in so far as they provided the female counterpart of one of our early ancestors.

The date immediately following a name indicates the date of birth.

The dates separated by a hyphen indicate the date of birth and the date of death.

A date preceded by the word "on" indicates the date of marriage.

Names numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, etc. indicate the sons and daughters of the parents whose names head the list.

Names lettered a, b, c, d, etc. are of the children of those numbered 1, 2, 3, etc., and therefore grandchildren of the people heading the list.

Likewise, names identified by (i), (ii), (iii), etc., are those of the children lettered a, b, c, etc., and the grandchildren of those numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, etc. and the great grandchildren of the people heading the list.

In a few cases the next generation is indicated by A, B, C, etc.

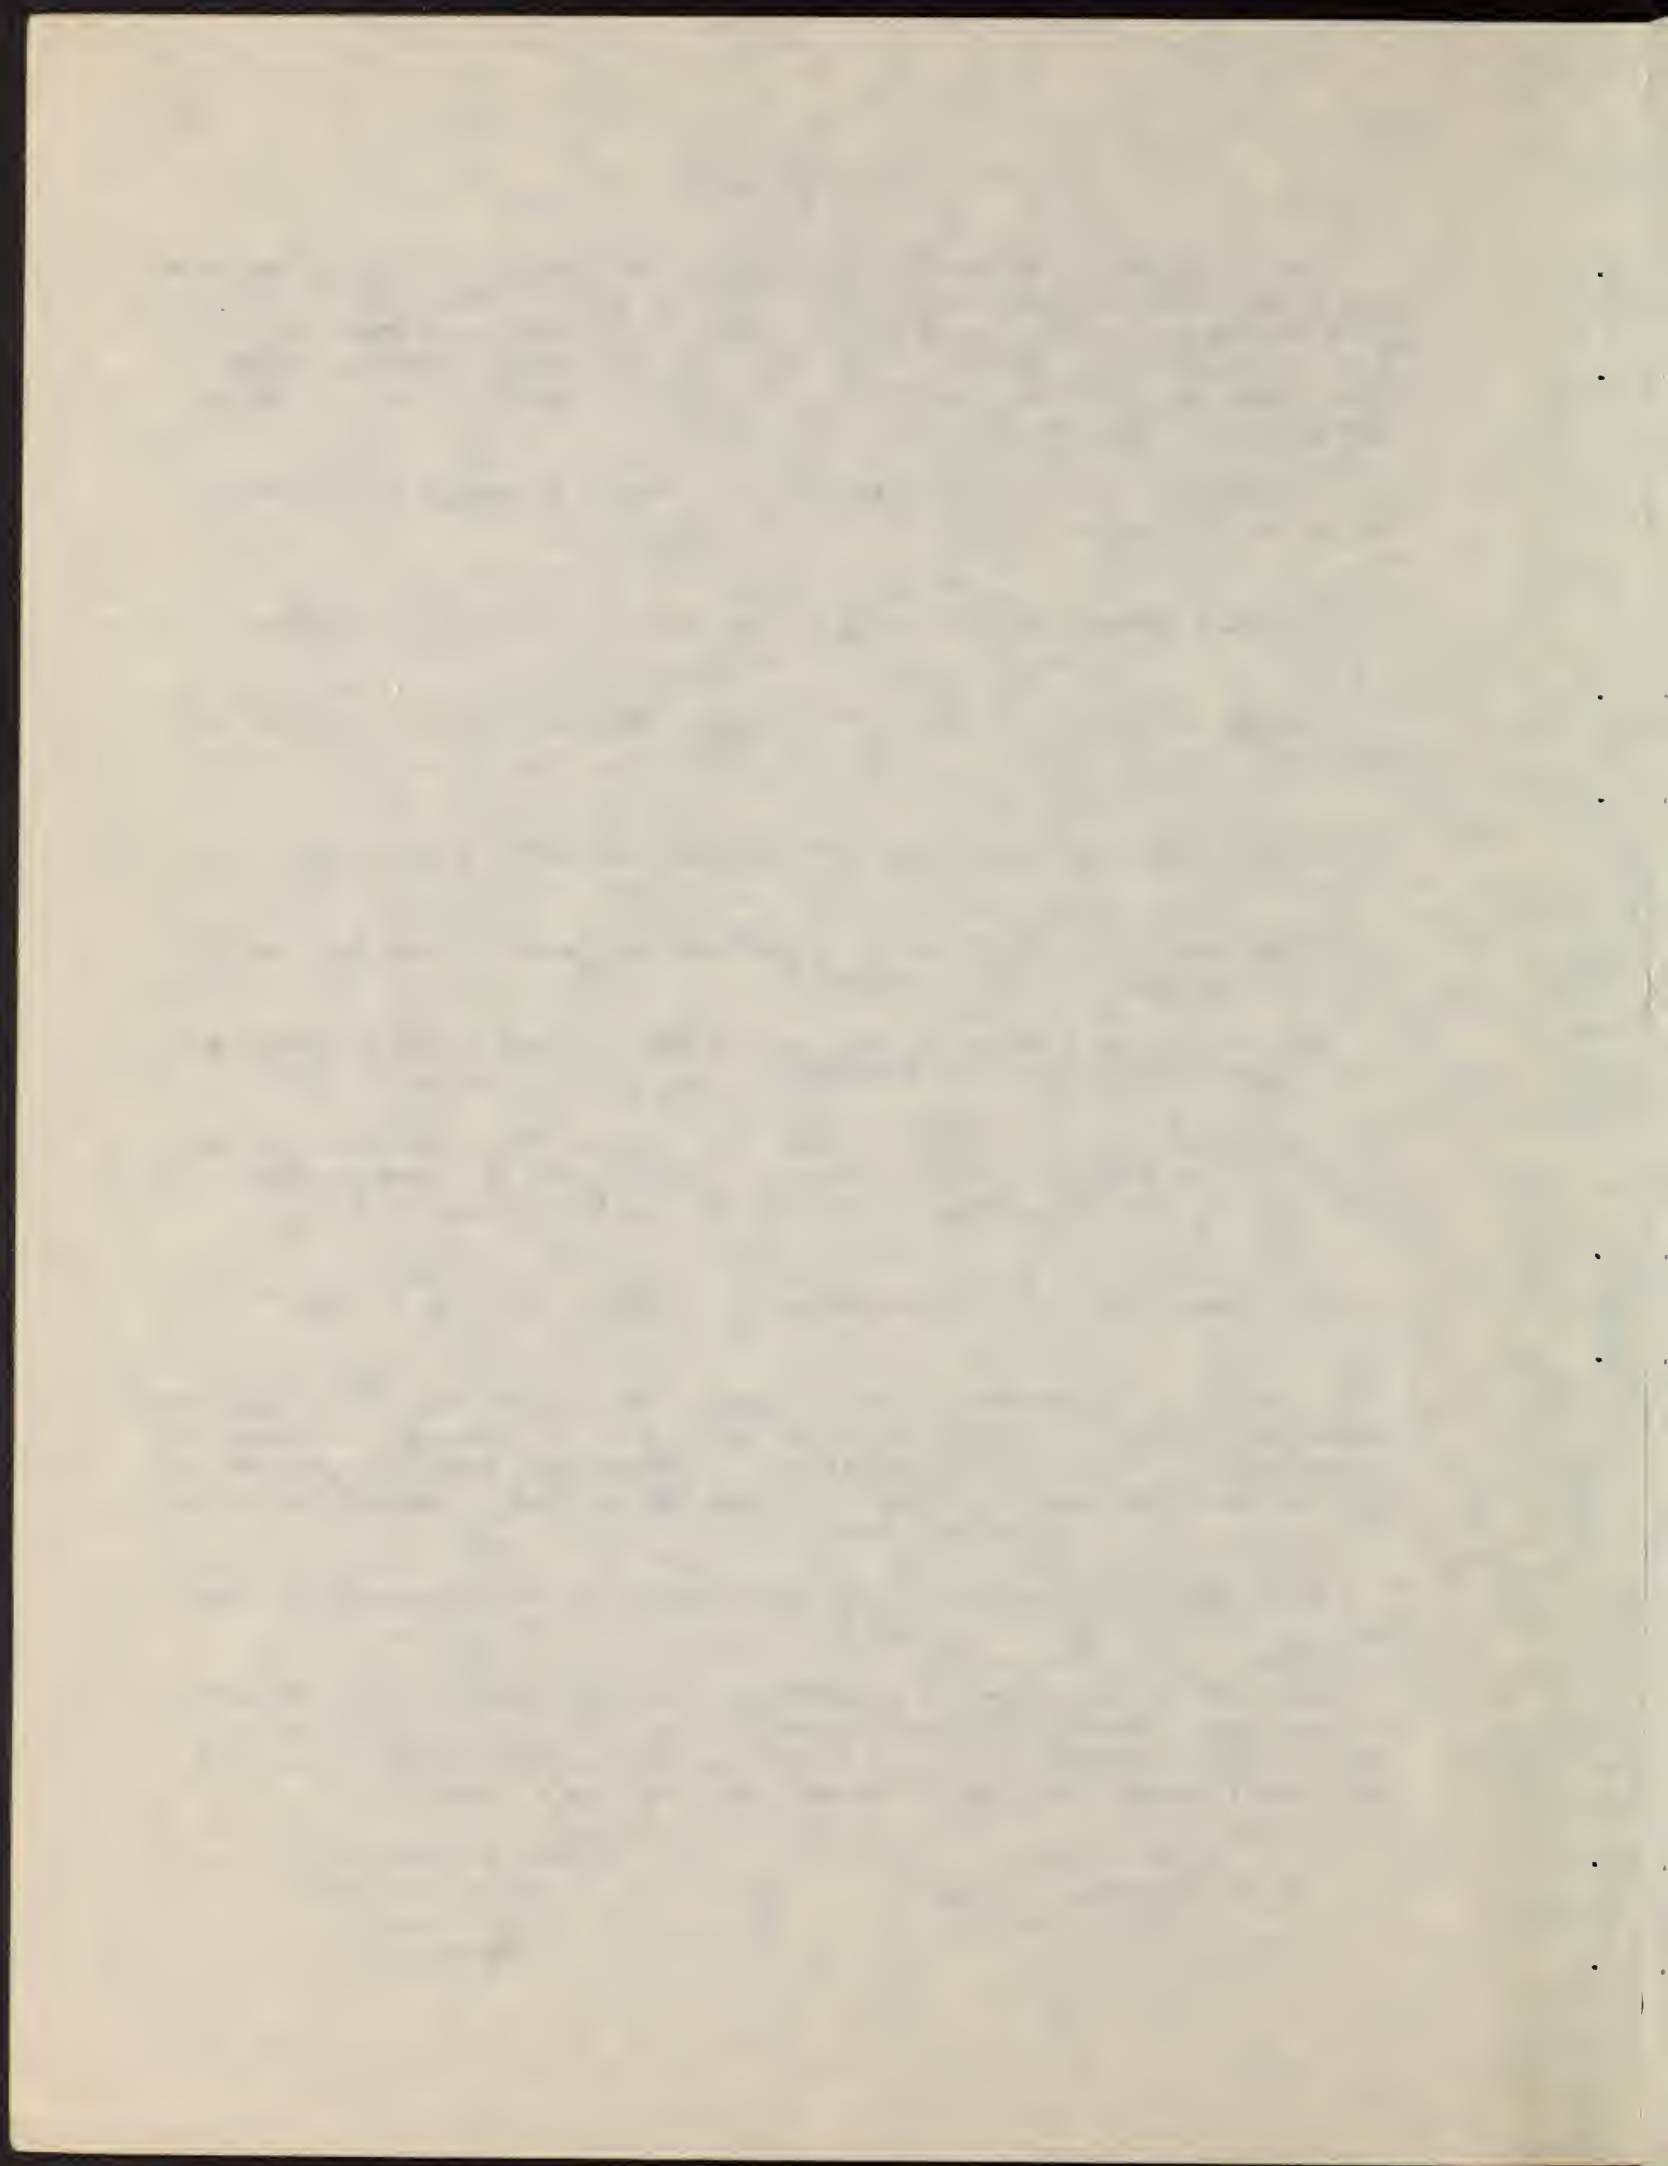

I am deeply indebted to James R. Losie, page 13, the second #3, who, when looking over one of the eight original copies sent out last year, volunteered to make use of his printing establishment in Moose Jaw, Sask., to put the contents in more permanent form than my carbon copies, and in numbers sufficient to supply all the families interested.

It is most generous of Jim and I appreciate it most sincerely as, I am sure, those receiving copies will also do.

There is no guarantee, or even hope, that these lists are without error and omissions. Should those interested care to inform me of any errors, omissions, or future additions to their families, I shall be happy to record them, and thus have one copy up to date as long as I am spared.

THE LOSIE FAMILY

The earliest known male ancestor is Lawrence Losie, born around 1750. He was a United Empire Loyalist. He was an army blacksmith in the war of American Independence, and leaving New York State, settled at Carrying Place, now a little hamlet at the middle of a two mile road, over which the Indians and early settlers carried their canoes between the Bay of Quinte and Weller's Bay. Trenton and Belleville are situated on the Bay of Quinte and Brighton on Weller's Bay.

The wife of Lawrence Losie was Jane Van Voorckes or Van Voorach (pronounced Van Voorish). The bodies of both are buried at Weller's Bay, Hall's Corners, Carrying Place, on the south east corner of what, in 1900, was known as the Reuben Young property.

Some claim that the name was originally "de Lacy", of French origin, while others maintain that it is German. From the fact that the family was protestant and emigrated to the United States, it is possible, if not probable, that they were Huguenots driven out of Western France.

Lawrence Losie is believed to be related to a certain William Losie, the first regular itinerant Methodist Minister who came to Canada in 1790.

CHILDREN OF LAWRENCE LOSIE AND JANE VAN VOORACH

- (1) Isaac Losie, 1789, a farmer, married Susan Maxwell, 1796 - 1888. They had twelve children.
- (2) Abram Losie, a blacksmith, married Jane Matthews. 16 children.
- (3) Stephen Losie, married twice. Went to Texas.
- (4) John Losie, farmer, 1797 - 1865. Married Eleanor Wait, 1806. Nine children.
- (5) Lawrence Losie II, labourer, married Rosanna Foster. Nine children.
- (6) Court Losie, farmer, 1801 - 1872. Married Elizabeth Maston.
- (7) Daniel Losie, farmer, 1806 - 1872, married Phoebe Robinson. Seven children.
- (8) Mary Losie, married John Lawson, a lumberman. One child.
- (9) Sarah Losie, married George Gibson, a sailor and captain.
- (10) Annie Losie, married James Jones, a farmer.

My dear Mr. [Name]
I have just received your letter of the 10th inst. and am glad to hear that you are well and happy.

I am writing you a few lines to let you know that I am still in the same old place.

I have not much news to write at present, but I am sure you will be interested to hear from me.

I am sure you will be interested to hear from me.
I am sure you will be interested to hear from me.

I am sure you will be interested to hear from me.
I am sure you will be interested to hear from me.

I am sure you will be interested to hear from me.
I am sure you will be interested to hear from me.

I am sure you will be interested to hear from me.
I am sure you will be interested to hear from me.

- (10) Charles Henry Robinson, married Ellen Lang. Four Children.
- (11) John Albert Robinson, married Ellen Ames. Three children.
- (12) Samuel Robinson II, died as a young man.

NOTE:- Hugh Robinson II is of the same generation as Lawrence Losie, and his twelve children are of the same generation as Lawrence Losie's ten children. There is no blood relationship between the two families, but by the marriage of Hugh Robinson II's daughter, Phoebe, to Lawrence Losie's seventh son, Daniel Losie, a marriage relationship, brother-in-law and sister-in-law, became established between each of this pair, Daniel and Phoebe, and the brothers and sisters of his or her mate, and the children of these two, Daniel and Phoebe, would be nephews or nieces to the brothers and sisters of both Daniel and Phoebe, and first cousins to the children of these brothers and sisters.

Here follow the families of the children of Lawrence Losie and Jan Van Voorach:

CHILDREN OF ISAAC LOSIE and SUSAN MAXWELL

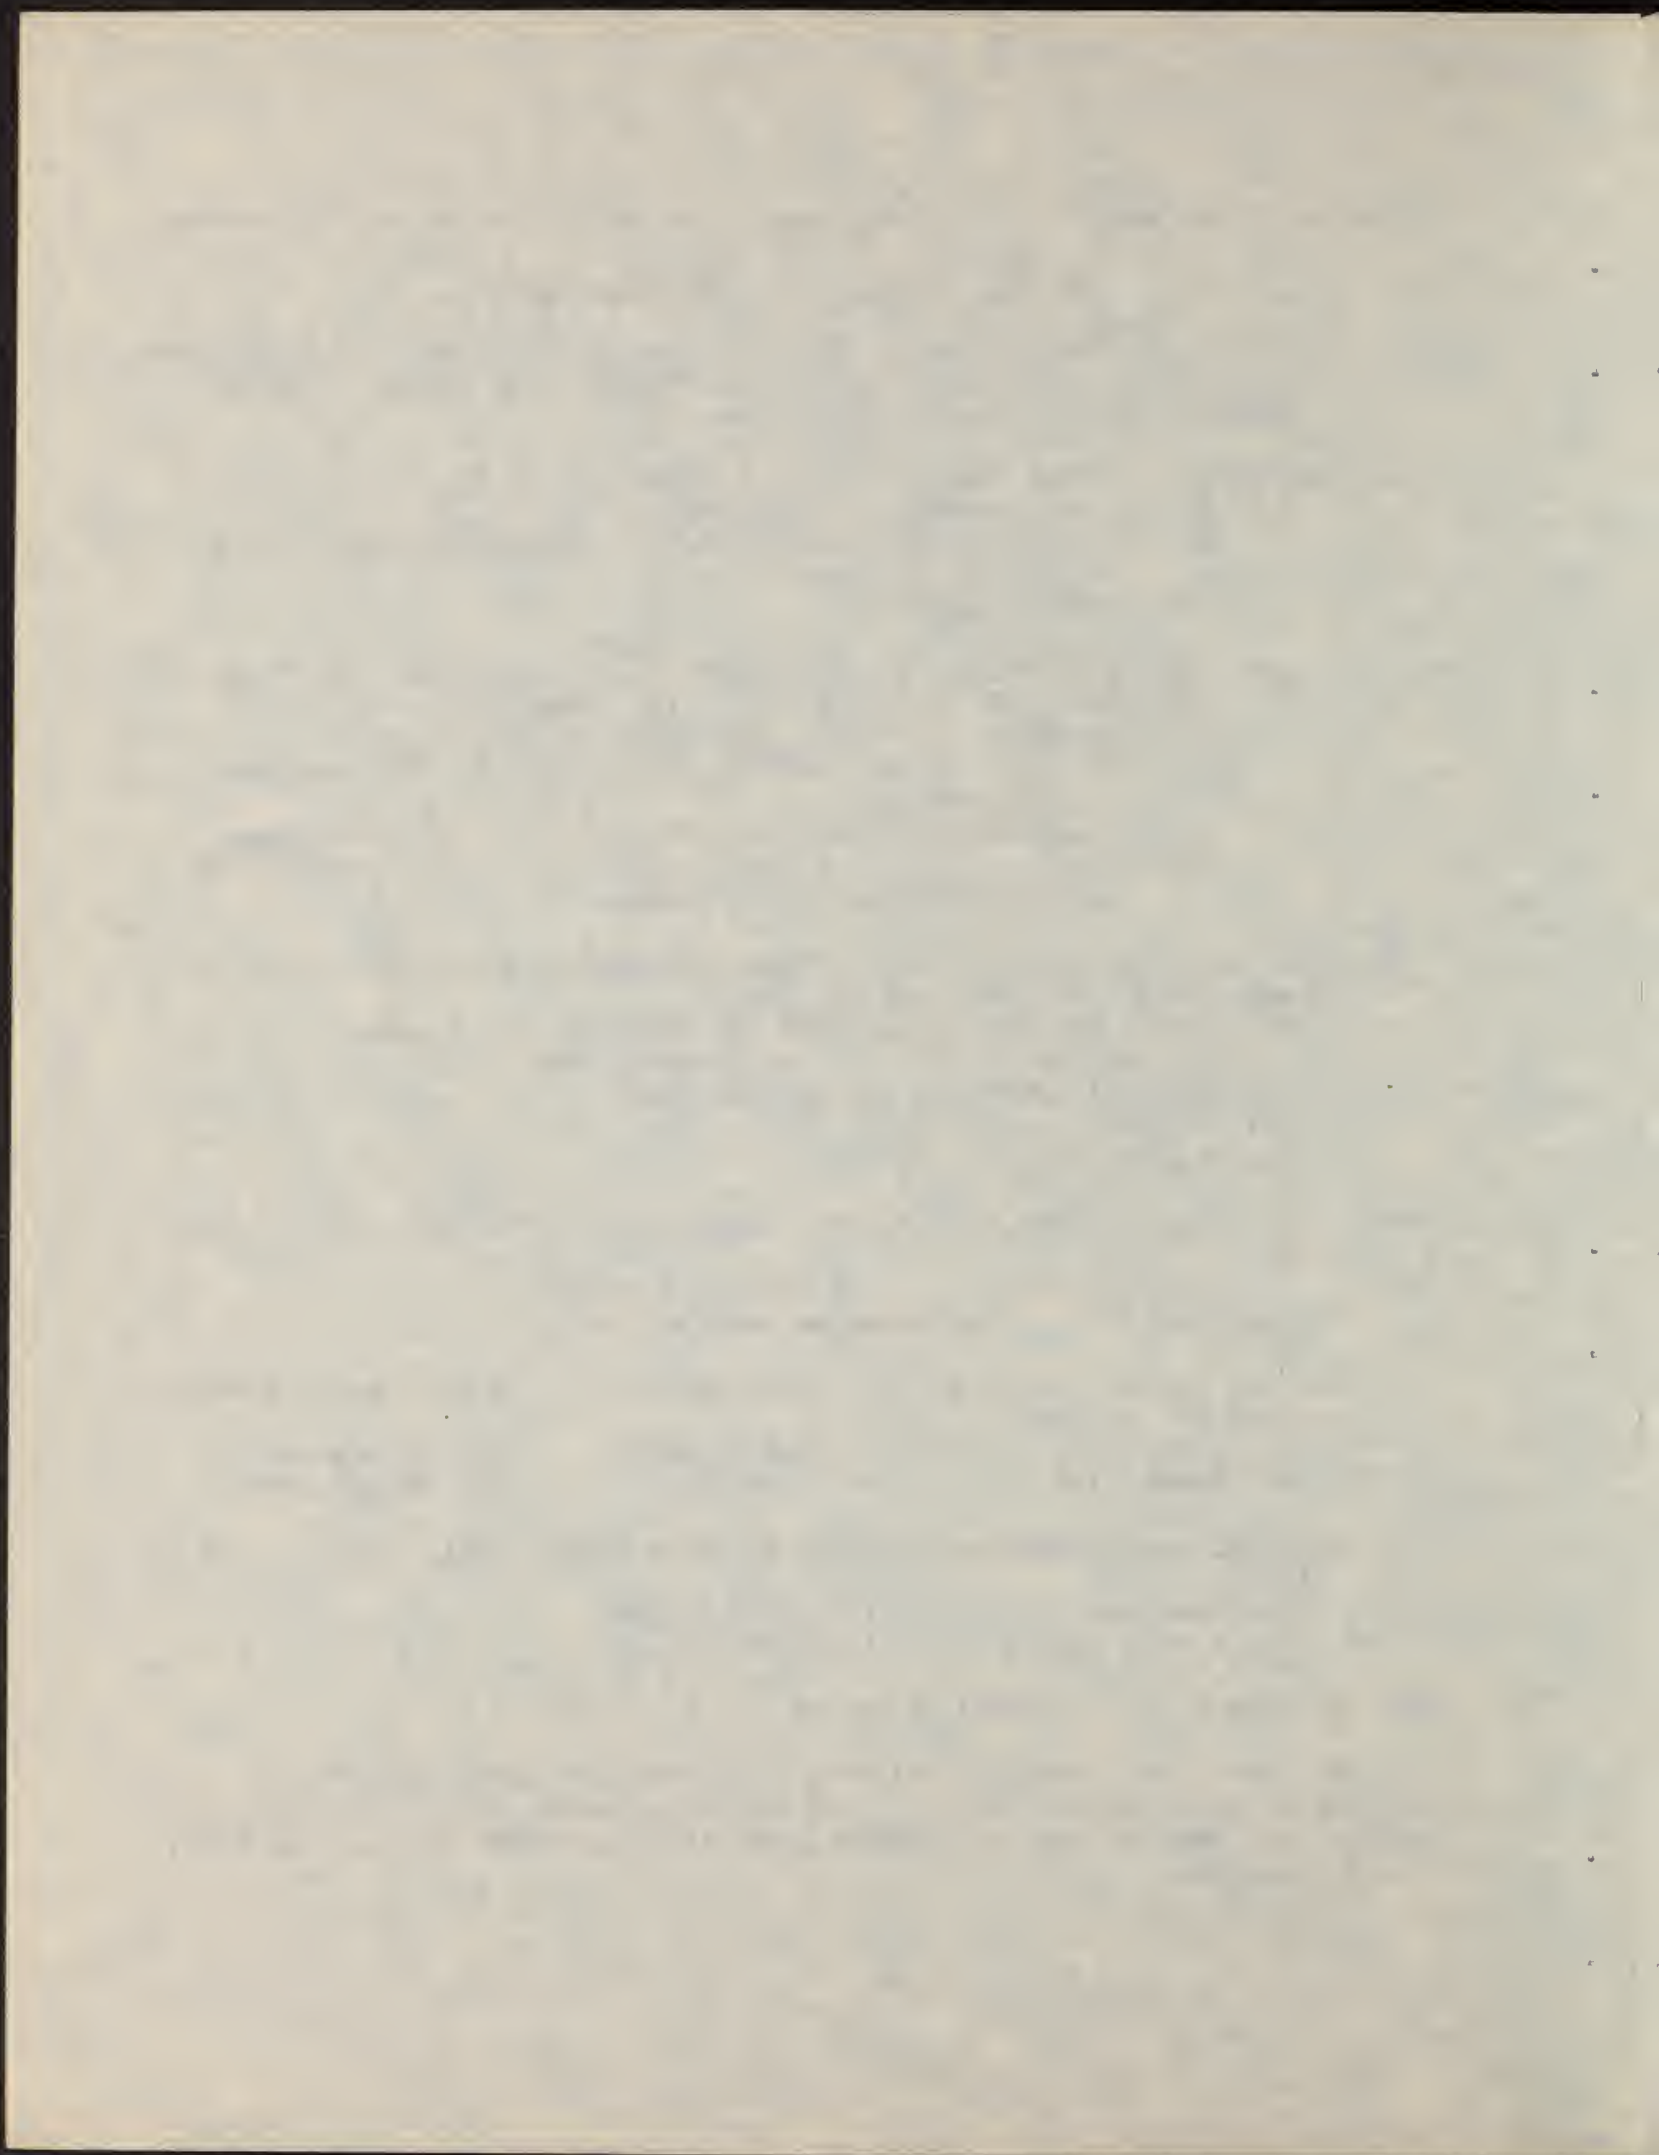

- (1) Ezekiel Losie, married Ann Robinson (not Hugh Robinson II's fifth daughter), and left one daughter, Charilla, who married Abram Chase, living at Pleasant Bay in Prince Edward County.

Handwritten text, likely a letter or document, written in cursive script. The text is extremely faint and illegible due to the quality of the scan. It appears to be a single page of writing, possibly a letter, given the informal nature of the script. The text is arranged in several paragraphs, with varying line lengths and some indentation. The ink is very light, making it difficult to discern specific words or phrases. The overall appearance is that of an old, faded document.

 (2) James Albert Robinson II, April 7, 1909. Overseas in second World War , ill for years with T.B. Died December 31, 1958.

Abigail Bull, the wife of Hugh Robinson II, and mother of Phoebe Robinson, had three brothers, Stephen, Amos and John Bull, and two sisters, Martha and Victoria Bull.

These five would be uncles or aunts of Phoebe Robinson by blood relationship, and uncles or aunts to her husband, Daniel Losie, by marriage. The children of Daniel Losie and Phoebe would be first cousins of each child of Stephen, Amos, John, Martha and Victoria Bull. For example, William R. Losie and all his blood first cousins would be first cousins to Orvall Bull, and all his blood first cousins.

Records of the descendants of this early Bull family are confined to those of Abigail, already listed, and to those of her brothers, John and Charles. John married Susan Miller, and had five children; Charles married Elsie Forsythe and had seven children. Elsie Forsythe was a sister of John Forsythe who married Louise Losie, William R. Losie's eldest daughter.

St. Helen's Church,

WEST EIGHTH AVE. AND TRIMBLE ST.,
VANCOUVER, B. C.

October 17th.

Dear Mr. Losee;

I wish to thank you sincerely for your kindness in loaning me the copy of Losee history, which I am returning after copying its essential contents. I am sorry to be quite so long acknowledging it and returning it. But it came just when I was the peak of my year-college lectures just beginning and church work just picking up (I have a dual position).

Many thanks too for your letter, which I presume I may keep.

However I am still in some darkness. The information you give about Joseph Losee ~~my grandfather~~ does not fit in with what little I know of the Joseph Losee ^{my grandfather}, nor do the brothers and sisters you mentioned of Mary his ~~mother~~ ^{daughter} correspond to my aunts, and uncles on my mother's side. My grandfather Joseph married a Rhoda Link down near Ernesttown, but later lived in Adolphustown where my mother met and married my father Samuel Trumpour. The Trumpours in Adolphustown and P.E.Co are sprung from the brothers Paul and John Joseph who settled in these respective places.

near Collier Bay

As you say, ~~they~~ Losee's down there have lost all knowledge of their history. I could never extract much from my mother. I have an idea her father Joseph was rather poor and drank, the latter probably being the cause of the former.

I know very much more of the Trumpour branch.

Your history ^{makes a slight misstatement of} of the Hay Bay Church built by the Losee who was a Methodist preacher, ceased to be used before 1885, when the present Brick Church at Dorland was built. I know the locality very well indeed. Sir John Macdonald lived ^{for it} not far from that church, for some of his boyhood.

In W.S. Herrington's "History of Lennox and Addington there is quite a little account of the love affair of that Losee, and its unfortunate aftermath.

However I know more of some of the Losee's now, and some day hope to get the missing link. Next time I go to Toronto I think I shall allow for a few extra days to visit Adolphustown and see if I can gather up more history.

Again thanking you, and rejoicing to have met you, I am

Yours sincerely,

Family History of the Losees, U. E. L.

The Losees were driven out of France during the reign of Henry III in the 1560's. They migrated to Holland where they remained until the beginning of the 17th century, when they moved to England, and from there to the Colony of New York about 1740, settling at Poughkeepsie, Dutchess County. There they secured land, cleared it and built themselves fine homes.

The house which Joshua Losee's father erected was a large two storey log building and they had every comfort when the rebellion broke out in 1776.

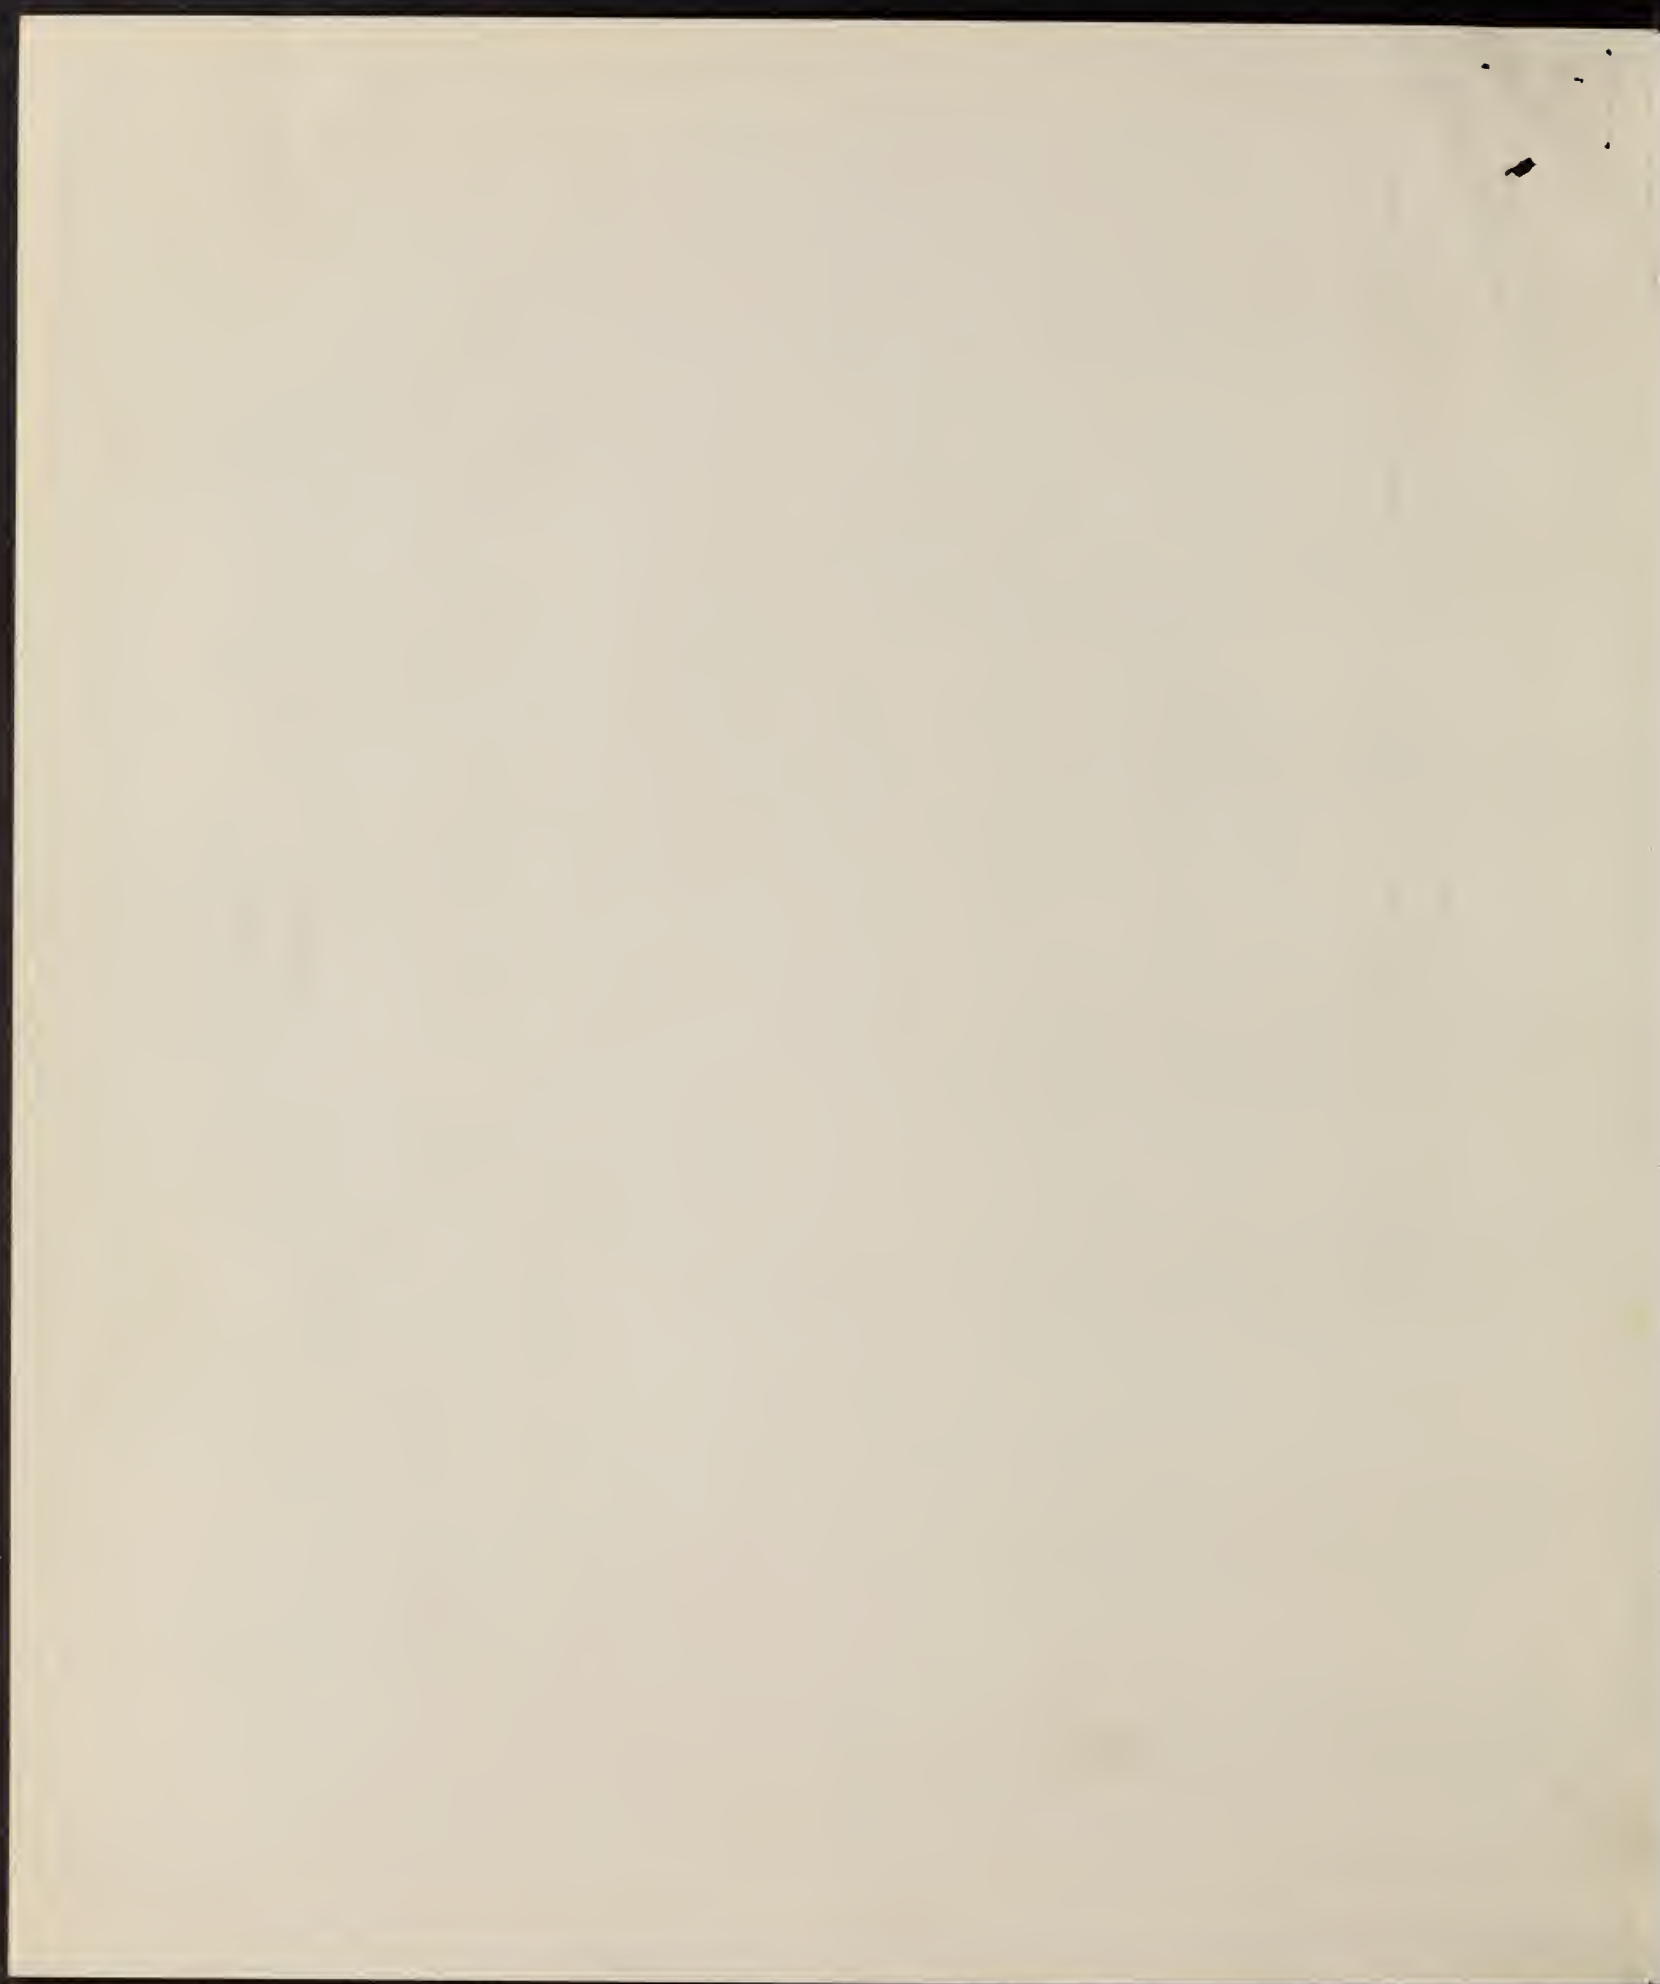

Owing allegiance to King George III, Joshua Losee, my great-grandfather, joined the Soldier Loyal Rangers. His brothers, Pompo and Cornelius, joined the Soldier King's Rangers, and William, having a crippled arm, remained at home.

As the rebellion advanced, the rebels spared the torch to the Losee home, but drove them out into the wilderness and used their late residence for Officers' headquarters.

(In passing let me say, that up to a few years ago, that grand old house was still standing and used as a Golf Club centre.)

Joshua Losee fought throughout the rebellion and after its close he migrated to Canada in 1784 to spy out the land. Travelling overland, he arrived at Adolphustown, Ontario, where he located, and then sent back for his family.

They started out from Poughkeepsie in the spring of 1785 with a number of servants, bringing with them cattle, horses and some farm produce, also some apple seeds. (See page 45 Centennial edition 1784-1884 Provincial Archives.) They came by way of the Hudson River to Albany, then up Mohawk River to a branch called Food Creek, to Oneida Lake and from there by the Oswego River to Oswego on the South shore of Lake Ontario where they built flat bottom boats and coasted eastward to Sacket's Harbor, then across the lower end of Lake Ontario by way of Wolf and Amherst Islands, to the Bay of Quinte, landing at Adolphustown after nearly four months travel.

My granduncle William Losee came to Canada at this time with the above party. Cornelius Losee migrated to Ohio U.S. where his descendants are now living.

My grandfather Joseph J. Losee, was only nine years of age at the time of their trip to Canada; he was compelled to walk nearly the whole way and barely survived the journey to Oswego.

In 1807 Joseph J. Losee, then thirty-three years of age, was granted 200 acres of land at Wicklow, Haliburton County. Just previous to this he was united in marriage to Deborah Ellsworth, to whom was born at Wicklow, Eatenan, Nathan and William Losee.

In 1818 he opened a general store at Wicklow and entered into several contracts for the construction of parts of the Kingston-Toronto highway. (His Ledger is now in the Archives of the Provincial Library, Victoria, B. C., and contains many names of early U.S. settlers.

As his work progressed westward, he sold the farm to Capt. John Fraser and Thomas Cleary late in 1819, then moved west and bought the land where the town of Whitby now stands. There my father, Eatenan Losee was born on August 19th, 1823.

After completing his road contracts, Grandfather moved back to Athol Township, Prince Edward County, where he passed away, aged sixty years.

My father went to the Salmon Point School, Athol Township, and left at the age of fifteen to learn the cabinet business but had to give that up on account of his health. In 1853 he located in Cobourg Ont. where he entered the Nursery business.

On April 10th, 1856, he married Hannah Dale of Cobourg, Ont. to whom was born Flora Eliza, Jan. 17th, 1857; Robert Burns, Jan. 25, 1859; William Ernest, March 28th, 1860; Alfred Henry, July 12th, 1862. the latter passed away Dec. 25th, 1873.

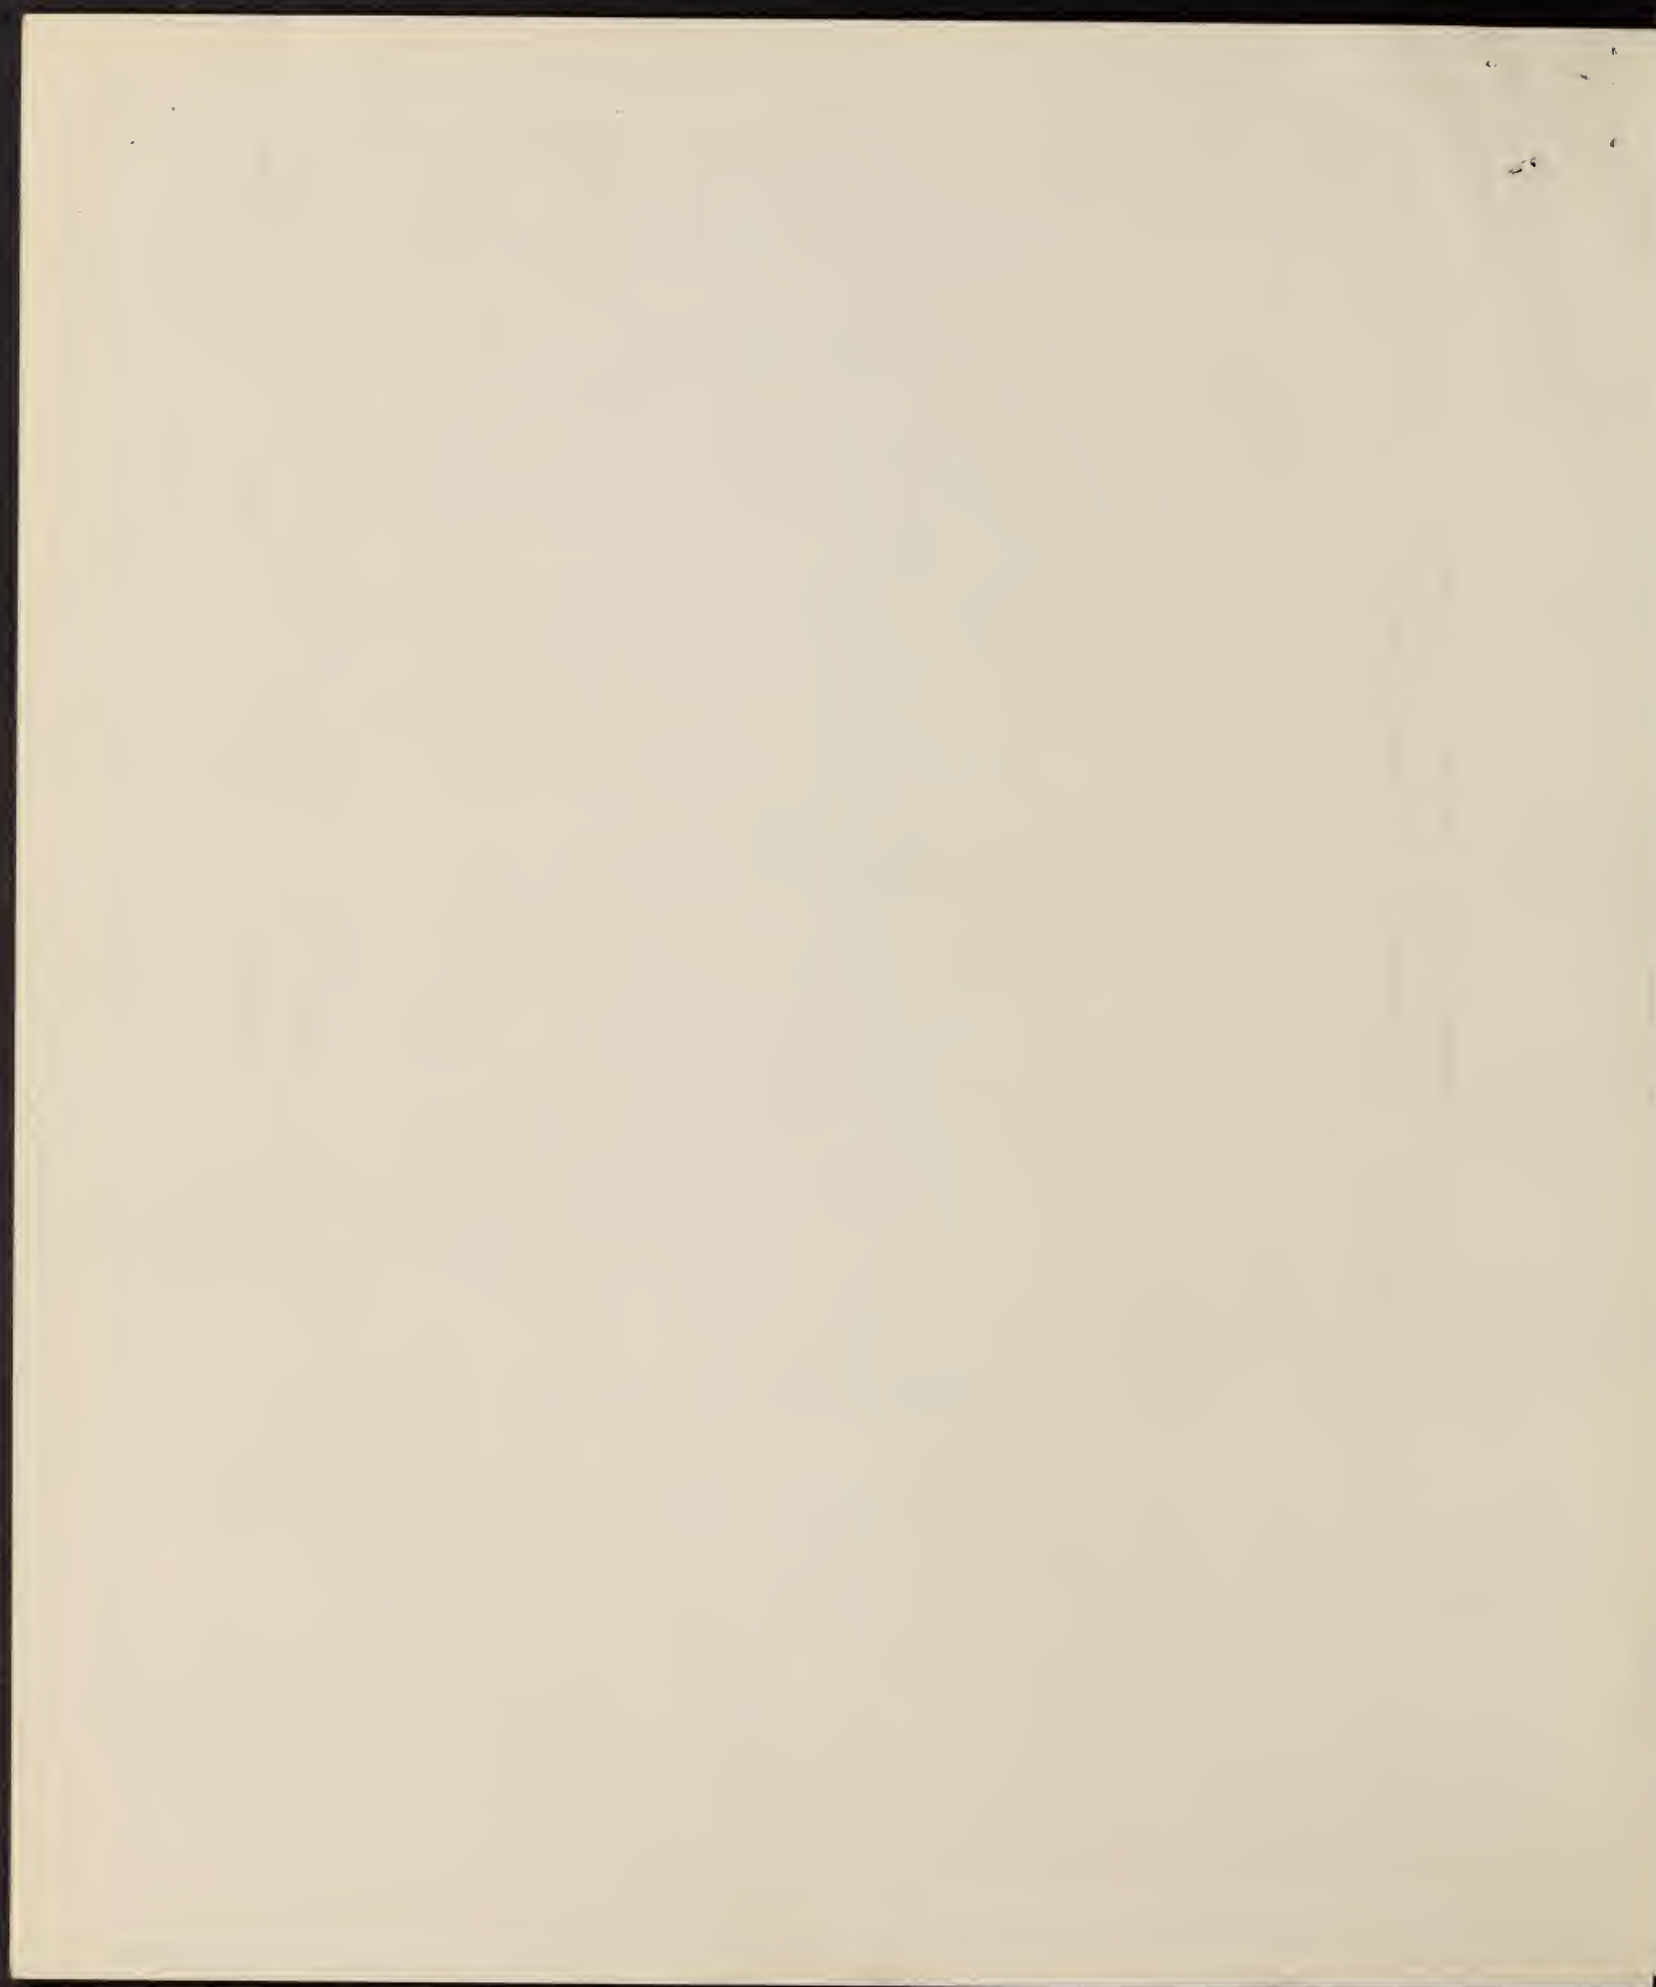

July 25th, 1888 Robert Burns Losee was united in marriage to Helie Patterson of Stratford, Ont. and later moved to Victoria, B.C. To Robert Burns and Helie Losee, (now of Bothel, Wn. U.S.) was born Mary, at Stratford, Ont.; Etta Patterson and Robert Cecil, born in Victoria.

Oct. 13, 1891 William Ernest Losee was united in marriage to Victoria, B.C. to Rebecca Peverett of Port Hope, Ont. To them were born in Victoria - Arthur Douglas, Dec. 22, 1892; William Stanley, Nov. 11, 1896, died Jan. 12, 1915.

Aug. 4, 1923 Arthur Douglas Losee was united in marriage to Stella Gosse of Victoria, B.C.

On Oct. 20, 1892 Flora Eliza Losee was united in marriage at Cobourg, Ont. to John Robert Peverett of Randolph, Nebraska, U.S. Flora Eliza Peverett has no descendants.

My father Bateman Losee, died April 3, 1902, aged 79; My Mother Hannah Losee, died Jan. 31, 1906, aged 82, and were buried in Cobourg, Ont.

William Losee, younger brother of Joshua Losee, after being in Ontario a number of years, returned to New York and joined the Methodist Church and in 1789 was assigned by the New York Conference to the Lake Champlain Circuit, travelling west as far as the Bay of Quinte.

In 1791 he was made a Deacon and in 1792 he was ordained, and then built the Hay Bay Church, which has been in continuous use ever since.

Shortly after his ordination, he fell in love with a young lady, who, however, failed to reciprocate his attentions, so he returned to Dutchess County, New York, and shortly after passed away.

W. J. Peverett and his wife Rebecca, (parents of Rebecca Losee, wife of W. E. Losee, U. E.) came from Norwich, County of Norfolk, England, and landed in New Brunswick, and later moved to London, Ont.

Loyalist and their descendants in perpetuity, whether male or female.

Dear Mr. Burleigh,

Your name and address was given to me by E. J. Charet of the United Empire Loyalists Association of Ontario. He said you were quite knowledgeable about William Loe, an ancestor of mine. He was my great great great grandfather's brother, I think. Our family tree was written by a cousin of my father Percy Henderson (now deceased) who said William Loe was the earliest known ancestor. However my great great great grandfather Laurence came to Canada from the States around 1790 and was thought to be a U. E. L. and had been a Blacksmith in the War. He settled in St. Edmund County & was named a Miller's Bay. Hall's Corner, Lampy's Cove. In order to join the U. E. L. I must show proof means to find out the origin of our name. Also where they came from in the States and where they immigrated from in Europe. I am taking for granted the name Losco is the same ^{family} as the way we spell our name now LOSIE.

Can you give me any information on this and how I can get proof of our U. F. L. ancestry?

In view of the fact it is the Christmas season I know you will probably be too busy to answer at once.

May I wish you the best of the holiday season and a bright New Year.

Yours sincerely
(Miss) Elizabeth A. Loe

A Traditional Story of the Arrival of William Losee.

(Douglas Library. Reminiscences of the Reverend James Richardson, D.D.)

It was to labor and suffer in this remote region ~~that the first missionaries~~ and among the settlers in such circumstances that the first missionaries of the Methodist Episcopal Church penetrated the woods and swamps intervening between the settlements in the States and Canada.

I recollect conversing nearly forty years since, with an old sister Van Camp who was among the first fruits of Methodism in Canada. She told me that she had her residence at first in the township of Cornwall and in the winter of 1791, or thereabouts, she saw through her window one exceedingly severe day a snowstorm then raging a man on horseback who knocked at her door and asked shelter and the rites of hospitality. Being a stranger almost famished, she took him in and accommodated him as well as able. He then told her he was a Methodist missionary named Loscend after he had been refreshed he would preach that ~~night~~ very night if the people could be collected. She seconded the motion cheerfully, though quite a stranger to the Methodists and sent her boys out to notify the neighbors. Thus was preaching and worship introduced into those parts and she soon became a happy convert to the faith taught and so strikingly exemplified in the labors, sufferings, boldness and zeal of the herald of it.

Dear Doctor Burleigh:

You have certainly surrounded yourself with silence and lots of it!

However a letter can break thru reserves which face to face one might not have the nerve. I want some help.

As you may recollect I am trying to trace the mother of my Great Grandfather David Andrews of Napanee. My living relations have no data so they are out.

I have however from a note from Mrs Lorrain, bless her kind heart, got a reference to a Wm Losee who had lots 14 - 15 - 6th line in Murray twp, Northumberland & this Chap in his will 7-18-1834 comes from Hempstead L. I. & leaves his estate to Rushmores of L. I. (Hempstead) and his wife Mary Losee, the Rushmores, Benjamin, Wm, Abigail Mett & Ann Hutchings being her children. He got the lots in a grant 1801.

The coincidence is in the "First Cent. of Methodism in Can" by Sanderson, wherein he quotes a minister writing from Long Island that he visited Rev Wm Losee at Carman Rushmore's home where he was in bed with a broken leg, and that he is buried in the Methodist Burying Ground in the Rushmore plot Hempstead L. I. The connection of the Wm Losee of Murray (formerly of Adolphustown!) and the Rev Wm Losee being at the Rushmores seems a definite clue. Another item Mrs L. Gavo was Wm Losee in Kingston with lots 14 - 15 Land Grant 1792.

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is illegible due to fading and blurring.

I have written the Registrar in Kingston to run this one down. However the point is that the ~~Ben~~ Wm Losee of Murray Twp, Northumberland left his property to Benjamin Clarke of Ernestown.

This has me stopped for a minute. In the Census Return 1851. L & A Twp of Ernestown, Camden & Sheppard it shows Benjamin Clark, Yeoman B. in U.S. 61 yrs wife Ed Clark B. Can West 56 - Children Clifton 34; Nelson 21, Wilson 21, Rebecca 22 & Elizabeth 14.

Now the sister of David Andrews, Jane Andrews married a Nelson Clark of Bloomfield according to the "Pioneers along the Bept" but if her mother was a Losee there seems to be a closing in of pioneer connections herein.

What do you know of the Benjamin Clarke connections?

Do you know anything more about Joseph Losee of Ernestown other than his children being Catherine m to Philip Hartman, Elizabeth m to Henry Fairfield (She was $\frac{1}{2}$ Aunt to David Andrews) and a son James Losee m to Hannah Grace dau of old Cap Michael Grass. This James Losee had a son Joseph the father of Wm Losee of Ottawa who put up a memorial in your Church to his father the old Postmaster, Collins Bay.

The Clarke tangle is confusion indeed, Herrington has much but the OHS Vol's have more.

You never mentioned what you found in the rest of what you were working on the last letter from you?

Let me hear from you Sincerely La Vallée.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Urdu or Persian, covering the entire page. The text is arranged in approximately 20 horizontal lines. There are some small, dark marks or stains near the top center and top right of the page.

Dear Mr. Burleigh, - Thank you for the very interesting material you send me.
I am enclosing the fee you suggested.
There seems to have been a great deal written about Wm. Losee. I had a copy of a Journal from the United Church archives with a great deal about him. Also Mr. C. P. Strahm said he found in the list of freeholders of 1740 in Rensselaers County New York the names of three Losees - John Cornelius & Lawrence. so it would seem they are the same family?
The bulletin said they came from the Utrecht, Holland in 1651. There are many descendants. ^{so now} ~~now~~ I will try to do a little more tracing.
How does one trace any one in Holland, do you know? My oldest brother is taking a trip to Europe in April & May and I thought if I could tell him where to look he might do it for me but he is not "hooked" on it as I am. His daughter is, though she gave $35 to a man of International Coats of Arms from Vancouver, B.C. and he said we have a crest or something.

Have you heard of them? He said our name used to be Logier. ~~Do you~~
I must look in the library again for clues to surnames.

Would it be any good for me to write to New York for the names & addresses of Loses? We are having terrible weather here so I have to have something interesting to do besides knit & watch television.

Thank you again for your help. Everything I get whets my interest more.
Sincerely, Elsie Losie

Dear Sirs--

I am trying to find out the origin of our name LOSIE. In a family tree researched by a cousin (now deceased) he said we were descended from U.E.L. stock. He also said we were Huguenots emigrated from the States. Can you confirm for me that we were descended from United Empire Loyalists? Any other information on our family would be greatly appreciated. An ancestor of ours, we think, was William LOSEE--the first. Methodist Minister in Ontario in 1790. I wonder if that is our ancestor also. Do both names appear in the lists, would you possibly tell me?

I thank you in hopes you can help.

Yours sincerely,
